

Service You and Your Guests Will Appreciate

Cogent Solutions & Supplies offers all the tools and products you need to clean and maintain the environment that your guests have come to expect and enjoy.

Optimize Your Usage of Laundry, Housekeeping, and Kitchen Chemicals

Your dedicated account representative will consult with you and evaluate your current operations to identify efficiencies and ways to capture savings on laundry, housekeeping, and kitchen chemicals. We will partner with you to:

- Analyze your current program in detail
- Offer optimization strategies that could dramatically reduce your chemical and water use
- Provide money-saving chemical purchasing options

Providing a Better Experience

We are dedicated to delivering a better supply experience – one that will save you time, space, and money. The benefits of working with your friendly, experienced Cogent account representative include:

- Routine equipment service checks that help prevent equipment failure and costly downtime
- Inventory management and warehousing options that reduce your need for excessive onsite storage
- Reliable on-time delivery for the certainty you will have what you need, when you need it

The Single-Source Supplier You Can Rely On

In addition to handling your laundry, housekeeping, and kitchen chemicals, our full line of janitorial and sanitation supplies allows us to serve as your single-source supplier for all your facility-related hospitality needs. We can source, find or create all the products you need, from the everyday to the obscure, and always at competitive prices. Our extensive product selection includes:
